MILTON.
—Two car loads of live hogs comprised the total shipments from this station last week, Smith & Co. being the shippers. The market was active and firm during the greater part of the week, and our buyers paid $2.25 to $2.30, and in some instances $2.55 was paid for very choice lots, but the receipts in Milwaukee on Friday and Saturday were large, and the market declined ten to twenty cents per hundred. The bulk of the hog crop in this locality has been marketed, and the shipments for the remainder of the year will be light.

—Saturday was rather too mild for the sleighing, but those who are obliged to walk, while others ride in cutters, thought it a very fine day.

—We had the pleasure of attending the Clement Brothers' concert, at the Junction, Friday night. The troupe gave an excellent entertainment, and the recent accessions to the troupe, the Wynans and Raymond, add greatly to its strength. Home Clement is immense in his three specialties, the Wynans in their German and Irish sketches are unsurpassed, and Mr. Raymond is a superb basso. The musical extravaganza brings down the house, and the programme throughout can't be beat.

—The Waupaca Republican has the following item in regard to Prof. C. M. Gates, formerly a resident here, and a graduate of the College in the Centennial year: "A new course of study has been prepared by Principal Gates and adopted by the school board. It is much the best ever introduced in our school, for there is a system in it. The work is carefully and scientifically graded, and in real benefit to the school. The Waupaca correspondent of the Oakshoe Northwestern says: 'It might be well to say right here that Waupaca has had a better school during the past term than ever before. The teachers and scholars have worked hard, and Mr. C. M. Gates, the Principal, has done a good work, and the result of his labors is very apparent.'

—Tom Earle, with Richardson Bros. of Janesville, and Frank Pemberton of the Edwards House, were in town Sunday.

—Postmaster Green is confined to the house with a throat and lung difficulty.

—Mrs. C. B. Hall has a relapse and is dangerously ill.

—A petition asking the Legislature to adopt an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the traffic in intoxicating liquors, to be submitted to the voters at the spring election, is being circulated and signed extensively in this vicinity.

—Dressed hogs sell here in a small way at three dollars per hundred. There will be fewer empty pork barrels next summer than ever before.

—Twenty-six degrees below zero Thursday morning, but most of our citizens failed to appreciate the fact.

—The sleighing has been tip-top for weeks past and it is no trouble for a man to haul a cord and a half of green wood or a ton or two of hay at a load.

—Notwithstanding the low price of hogs our farmers seem inclined to continue in the business another year. Every man advises his neighbor to go out of hogs, but don't propose to do so himself. Many well posted men who have made careful estimates are of the opinion that hogs pay better, even at present values, than any grain crop that the farmer raised this season.

—Rev O. U. Whitford, of Walworth, made us a pleasant call last week. He left home to attend the Albion council, but that meeting failed to occur according to appointment and he concluded to visit his Milton friends, who were glad to meet him once more.

—The Literary Societies of the college are perfecting arrangements for a course of lectures and readings.

—Mr. F. C. Maxson did not make as much of a visit here as he intended. He received a telegram from Milwaukee Tuesday informing him that his services were needed there and took the midnight train for home. Mrs. Maxson and son did not accompany Mr. Maxson, the son being quite ill with measles.

—Janesville had better don her sackcloth and ashes. A burly growler in the beck of woods says that he can buy peanuts at Whitewater for just half what the Bower City dealers in ground nuts ask. Janesville's peanut trade has gone where the woodbine twine. O! "shucks."

—Miss Brooks, of Madison, who has been visiting friends here for some time past, went home last week.

—Blacksmiths have not amassed great wealth so far, this winter, the roads having failed to be in that icy condition, which is so pleasing a sight to the equine shoer. Verily they may say, "This is the winter of our discontent, short of funds and not making a cent."

—A wagon repair shop is needed in this village, we should judge. Farmers say that they are unable to get repairing done here.

—It is astonishing how many people use their backs in closing doors.

—First class green second growth wood is being contracted at three dollars per cord and the best dry at four dollars per cord.

—The first week in the month made new ice nearly a foot thick, and as clear as a crystal on Stora lake, and some of our loe men filled their houses with it.

—Union services were held at the Congregational church on Sunday evening in connection with the week of prayer. A sermon was presented by Rev. E. M. Dunn.

—Prof. Lyman, of Whitewater, has organized a class in vocal music and the singers meet at the college on Monday evenings. A goodly number of the young people are already members of the class and many more should avail themselves of the privilege.

—The January number of the College Journal goes to press this week. There are hundreds of people in this county who should subscribe and thus help on the good work.

—Prof. Heritage and wife are now making this village their home. They are keeping house in E. H. Burdick's building.

—The tobacco growers would welcome a January thaw, which would enable them to take down their tobacco.

—Joe M. Lane, agent of the St. Paul company, at Emmetsburg, Iowa, is in town this week shaking hands with old acquaintances. "Johnny" is looking hale and hearty, and railroading evidently agrees with him.

—The annual meeting of the Seventh-day Baptist society took place last Sunday morning, and in the afternoon the members of the church and society adjourned to Hamilton's Hall and enjoyed a picnic dinner and social reunion. About one hundred participated in the good cheer and pleasant incident to the occasion. The dinner will be a yearly affair hereafter.

—Mrs J. C. Davidson has been quite ill, but is convalescing now.

—Mr Charles Searing, of Iowa, was in town this week, the guest of his brother, Prof Searing.

—Monday was quite a brisk day for the swine buyers. Smith & Co. took in five car loads and Williams & Borden one or two.

—Renew your subscription to the Week ly Gazette and keep posted on the doings of the Legislature.

My practice is not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not rest on downy trifles, but on facts, and is the result of a long and successful career. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic Diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.

Lud Brownin's Account of Rubenstein's

Playing.

"Jud, they say you heard Rubenstein play when you was in New York."

"I did, in the cool."

"Well, tell us about it."

"What? me? I might's well tell you about the creation of the world."

"Come, now; no mock modesty. Go ahead."

"Well, sir, he had the blameworthy, biggest, caty-cornered pianer you ever laid eyes on; somethin' like a distracted billiard table on three legs. The lid was hoisted, and mighty well it was. If it hadn't been, he'd tore the entire insides clean out, and scattered 'em to the four winds of heaven."

"What did he do?"

"You bet he did; but don't interrupt me. When he first set down he 'peared ke mighty little 'bout playin' and wish't he hadn't come. He twiddle-ee-died a little on the tangle, and twiddle-oddle'd some on the bass—just foolin' and boxin' the thing's jaws for being in his way. And I says to a man settin' next to me, 'I. What out foot playin' is that?' And he says,

'Heish! But presently his hands commenced chasin' one 'nother up and down the keys, like a passel of rats scampering through a garret very swift. Parts of it was sweet, though, and reminded me of a sugar squirrel turnin' the wheel of a candy cage."

"Now, I says to my neighbor, 'he's showin' off. He thinks he's doin' it, but he ain't got no idee, no plan of nothin'."

"He play me up a tune of some kind or other I'd—"

"But my neighbor says, 'Heish!' very impatient.

"I was just about to git up and go home, bein' tired of that foolishness when I heard a little breakin' away in the woods and calling sleepy like to his mate, and I looked up and saw that Rubin was beginning to take some interest in his business, and I set down again. It was the peep of the day. The light came faint from the East, the breeze blew gentle and fresh, some more birds waked up in the orchard, then some more in the trees near the house, and all began singin' to gether. People began to stir, and the allowed the shutters. Just then the first beam of the sun fell upon the blossoms a little more, and it teched the roses on the bushes, and the next thing it was broad day. The sun fairly blazed; the birds sang like they'd spit fire; the thrushes, all the various kinds of sparrows and flashin' diamonds of dew, and the whole world was bright and happy as a king. Seemed to me like there was a good breakfast in every house in the land, and not a sick man nor woman anywhere. It was a fine mornin'."

"And I says to my neighbor, 'That's mighty fine!'"

"But he glared at me like he'd like to cut my throat."

"Presently the wind turned; it began to thicken up, and a kind of gray mist came over things; I got low spirited directly.

Then a silver rain began to fall: I could see the drops touch the ground; some flushed up like long pearl earrings, and the rest rolled away like round rubies. It was pretty but melancholy. Then the peasants gathered themselves into long strands and necklaces, and then they melted into thin silver streams running between golden gravels, and then the streams joined each other at the bottom of the hill, and made a book that flowed silent, except that you could kindle see music, especially when the bushes on the bank moved as the music went along down the valley. I could smell the flowers in the meadow. But the sun didn't shine, nor the birds sing; it was a foggy day, but not cold. The most curious thing was the little white angel boy; like you see in pictures, that run ahead of the music brook, and led it on, and on,

away out of the world, where no man ever was—I never was, certain. I could see that boy just as plain as I see you. Then the moon light came, without any sunset, and shone on the graveyards, where some few ghosts lifted their hands and went over the wall, and between the black sharp-top trees splendid marble houses rose up, with fine ladies in the lift-up windows, and men that loved 'em but never could get a-nigh

'em, and played on guitars under the trees, and made me that miserable I could scarce because I wanted to love somebody, I don't
